Communist Bandits Release Woman Missionary

SEATTLE GIRL HELD FOR RANSOM OF $400,000

AMERICAN LEGATION AT PEIPING INFORMED OF HER RELEASE

WAS CAPTURED IN LOSHAN, PROVINCE OF HONAN, ON OCTOBER 17

Peiping, China, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Miss Bergliot Evenson of Seattle, a missionary of the Lutheran United Mission, who was held by bandits for $400,000 ransom, has been released, the American legation was informed today.

Legation officials added no details to the announcement. Miss Evenson was captured in Loshan, Province of Honan, on Oct. 17. She was accompanied by Christopher Evedt, a Norwegian employee of the mission who is still held by the bandits.

Miss Evenson's captors were identified here as the same communist bands who are holding Bert Nelson of Minneapolis for a ransom of $300,000. Their terms for his release were signed "the first Red army."

Thomas Megan, an American Catholic missionary, escaped over the Loshan city wall when Communists entered the gates. Joseph Hinkels, a Catholic missionary of Turkey River, Iowa, is missing. Two other American missionaries are reported held by bandits, and three are missing.

Miss Evenson said that her danger was acute in a letter to officials here.

Hankow, China, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Two persons were being held captive today following a bandit raid on the Swedish Mission at Loshan in Honan province, it was reported here today. A large ransom was asked.

A priest and a young woman, Miss Evenson were believed to be the pair captured.

The government decided yesterday to organize 10 divisions to suppress the outgrowth of banditry, it was revealed today.

Mayor Thompson and City Officials Win Court Fight

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago and other city officials won out today in their fight against reimbursing the city for $2,345,604 paid out in fees to real estate experts.

The state supreme court reversed the decision of the Cook county circuit court which had ordered Thompson and the other officials to pay back the money out of their own pockets.

The suit to compel the mayor and the other officials to reimburse the city for the experts' fees was instituted by the Chicago Tribune.

The Tribune charged that the fees had been paid out illegally, not for services rendered, but in a conspiracy for "the private benefit of the defendants and for the benefit of the Thompson political machine."

The Tribune's victory in the lower court was appealed by Thompson and the other defendants. They contended that the fees were paid out legitimately to real estate experts retained in connection with major street improvements.

The supreme court's decision reversing the lower court verdict declared that "the record fails to establish any liability against the defendants" and adds that the complaint should have been dismissed.

The supreme court's action is final unless a rehearing is obtained during the December term. It was not indicated whether the Tribune would try to reopen the case.

Evidence of 'Criminal Plot' Claimed Uncovered in Los Angeles Blast

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Evidence of a "criminal plot" as the cause of the $1,500,000 blast which wrecked a portion of the Garmen Capitol building Oct. 17, was claimed by fire department investigators today after the discovery of a missing section of a gas pipe.

The pipe, of three-fourths inch size and nine feet long, showed signs of having been recently unscrewed. Investigators Paul Wolfe and Everett Parjas declared.

The missing pipe, they asserted, apparently had been removed from a section of the gas conduit on the floor where the explosion occurred.

Colonel Lindbergh Named Commander of Legion of Honor

Paris, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has been appointed a commander of the Legion of Honor, President Gaston Doumergue announced today when he received the trans-Atlantic aviators, Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte.

$400,000 IS STOLEN FROM 25 WISCONSIN BANKS DURING 1930

Milwaukee, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Insurance companies estimated today that $400,000 has been stolen from 25 Wisconsin banks during 1930. The loss for 1929 was only $250,000, the figures revealed.

The increased number of hold-ups has resulted in small town banks sending their securities to large cities where police protection is more adequate, it was said.

Most of the stolen securities are being disposed of in Minneapolis, indicating that gangs go there after the holdups, insurance company officials said.

FEELING OF OPTIMISM IS NOW APPARENT

PRES. HOOVER BUILDING ORGANIZATION TO DEAL WITH UNEMPLOYMENT

HIGH SPIRIT OF CONFIDENCE IN RESULTS TO BE OBTAINED

By LYLE C. WILSON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 25.—A growing feeling of optimism is apparent in the organization which President Hoover is building to deal with the unemployment situation.

Expressions of satisfaction from Mr. Hoover and a series of rapid moves by Col. Arthur Woods indicated a high spirit of confidence in results to be obtained.

With his mechanical organization taking shape and beginning to function, Col. Woods planned to go to New York today to recruit other workers. His first task is to find out the exact situation in regard to the jobs.

In this connection pledges of manufacturers not to discharge workers, given to Mr. Hoover a year ago in his first depression conference with business leaders, may come under scrutiny.

There is no disposition to find out who dismissed the men and women now out of work. But concentration of unemployment in any given city would be an index of the extent to which pay rolls had been maintained there.

Owen D. Young, Henry Ford and an imposing array of industrialists met at the White House a year ago when the full import of the stock market collapse was unfolding. So far as he was able, Mr. Hoover put these men on record with promises to maintain payrolls, initiate building projects and generally to keep their chins up in a distressful moment.

This is characterized by Mr. Hoover as voluntary co-operation. Its spirit, he said in a formal statement yesterday, has been strong enough to cope with the problem during the past year. At the same time he rejected suggestions of a special session of congress.

"No special session is necessary to deal with employment," said the president's statement. "The sense of voluntary organization and community service in the American people has not vanished."

"The spirit of voluntary service has been strong enough to cope with the problem for the past year and it will, I am confident, continue in full measure of the need."

DRAFTING OF STATE RADIO INTERFERENCE LAW DISCUSSED

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Drafting of a state radio interference law will be discussed at a series of open meetings to be held in Minnesota cities during November by the Northwest Radio Trade association.

Meetings will be held at Duluth, Nov. 17; Brainerd, Nov. 18, and St. Cloud, Nov. 19 as well as at other northwest points.

Radio interference ordinances are already in effect at 40 to 50 towns and cities in the state, the association stated.

BODIES OF 2 DUCK HUNTERS RECOVERED BY FELLOW WORKERS

Fergus Falls, Minn., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—The bodies of Louis Mueller, Rosemount, and Arthur Neuberger, Forbes, victims of a duck hunting accident in which they were drowned, today were sent to their respective homes.

Mueller went out on thin ice to recover two ducks they shot at a small lake here. When the ice gave way beneath him, Neuberger went to his aid but also went through the ice. The bodies were recovered by fellow workers of the Welch Construction company working on highway No. 36.

Explosion in Maybach Mine Attributed to Fire Damp Traps 82 German Miners Today

5 OTHERS ARE RESCUED, 3 ESCAPE UNHURT

RESCUE WORK ORGANIZED IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE EXPLOSION

FRIEDRICHSTAHL, SCENE OF ACCIDENT, IS IN THE RHINELAND

Friedrichstahl, Germany, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—An explosion in the Maybach mine trapped 82 miners today. Five others were rescued, injured, while three escaped unhurt.

It was believed only 90 men were in the mine. Rescue work was organized immediately after the explosion, which occurred at 4 P. M.

Friedrichstahl is in the Rhineland, ten miles northeast of Saarbrück. The explosion was attributed to fire damp.

An unconfirmed report said 36 had been killed in the explosion.

Former Mayor of Melrose Park Charged With Embezzlement

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Charles J. Wolf, former mayor of Melrose Park, Chicago suburb, was charged today with embezzling $280,000 from the Citizens' State bank of Melrose, of which he formerly was president.

Wolf was charged with the irregularities after the bank was closed following a meeting of state bank examiners. He was under $25,000 bond pending a hearing Oct. 31.

The institution experienced a steady run on its reserve after Wolf resigned the presidency in July, by request, A. E. Kimlin, assistant chief examiner of the auditor's office, said.

The bank was capitalized at $200,000 and had deposits of $1,200,000.

DEER WITH TASTE FOR TOWN LIFE

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—A deer with a taste for town life strayed into thickly settled Greenwich today, smashed a plate glass window, butted an automobile and finally was captured on the top of a taxi cab.

The animal first attracted attention near town hall. Frightened by pedestrians, it jumped through a show window and ran back through the hole in the glass. After running full tilt into an automobile, the deer jumped to the top of a cab where the driver and several other persons captured it.

Airplane DO-X to Fly to New York After Nov. 8

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—The Dornier works announced today that the airplane DO-X, largest in the world, would start its long-awaited flight to New York "after November 8th."

The flight of the giant plane, which carries some 170 persons when its three decks are filled, will be via Amsterdam, Calshot, Le Havre, Lacoruna and Lisbon.

ECONOMIC ISSUES BECOME PARAMOUNT

UNEMPLOYMENT AND TARIFF ENTER INTO ILLINOIS POLITICS

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Economic issues—unemployment and the tariff—became the current issue today in the three-cornered Illinois senatorial race with Mayor William Hale Thompson in the background for the first time in several days. The mayor's defection from republican ranks, made known when he called on Chicago negroes to vote against Ruth Hanna McCormick and support her democratic opponent, James Hamilton Lewis, still was ignored by both sides but the drive for votes was redoubled over the week-end.

Lewis, continuing his practice of speaking only once a day, addressed a luncheon meeting of the Illinois Women's Democratic club. The club announced reservations had been made for 25,000 women.

Mrs. McCormick was scheduled to speak at several district meetings late in the day.

Last night, once over the radio, while Mrs. McCormick spoke four times Lewis addressed only one meeting.

Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neil, independent dry, accused the republicans of using unfair tactics in preventing her from obtaining a hall in Chicago's "black belt" in which to address negro voters.

AL CAPONE IS RECOGNIZED GANGLAND RULER

OFFICIALS BELIEVE HE IS NEARING NAPOLEONIC DREAM TO EXTEND POWER

AIELLO AND ZUTA BOTH SLAIN, BUGS MORAN DODGING FROM PLACE TO PLACE

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—A fugitive himself, never daring to leave his stronghold unless under heavy gangster guard, unable, even to visit his home, Scarface Al Capone was recognized by police today as absolute ruler of the Chicago underworld.

With Joe Aiello and Jack Zuta both slain and their once powerful gangster ally, George "Bugs" Moran, dodging from hiding place to hiding place in fear of his life, officials believed Capone was nearing realization of his Napoleonic dream to extend his power throughout the city, perhaps the nation.

Of all the north side leaders who had dared oppose Capone since Dion O'Banion was killed back in 1924, only Moran remained and police predicted it would not be long until he too would be trapped and the last menace to Capone rule removed. Moran's power was broken when seven of his gangsters were killed in the St. Valentine's Day massacre and police say he has never recovered since.

Although they hold no hopes that the Aiello slaying of Thursday night would be solved any quicker than that of O'Banion or any of his successors, police continued their investigations today, directing their search for Pasquale Prestigiacomo, better known as Patsy Presto, and for several Capone gangsters known to be expert machine gunners.

Aiello, stepping from Presto's home, where he had been in hiding for two weeks, was literally riddled with machine gun bullets. Recalling the long enmity between Capone and Aiello, whose gang power was said to extend throughout the country, officers concluded immediately it was "another Capone job."

Was Unconscious for 1,258 Hours, Matron Dies From Car Mishap

St. Paul, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Unconscious 1,258 hours after an automobile accident in which her skull was fractured, Mrs. Max V. Beghtol, Lincoln, Neb., died today.

Mrs. Beghtol was unconscious longer than any other patient ever treated at the Ancker hospital, where she died at 1:30 a. m.

Although H. E. Milliken, Omaha, her brother-in-law, said Mrs. Beghtol would be buried in St. Paul, definite funeral arrangements have not been made yet.

Mrs. Beghtol was born in Des Moines, Ia., in 1892, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wood, who now live in Omaha. Her two children, Robert, 16, and Martha, 12, who were injured in the same accident, have recovered.

27 PERSONS ARE KILLED BY ARTILLERY FIRE

IN DEATHS ARE INCLUDED 18 WOMEN AND CHILDREN ABOARD SHIP

CAPTAIN SAID THAT HE DID NOT KNOW SIGNIFICANCE OF WARNING SHOT

Rio De Janeiro, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—An official announcement today said 27 persons, including 18 women and children, were killed yesterday when the artillery at Copacabana fortress opened fire on the German steamer Baden in the harbor. Thirty-five others persons on the ship were wounded.

The women and children were Spanish emigrants. Four members of the Baden's crew were killed by the fire and five of the wounded died later today. The captain said he did not know the significance of the warning shot the fortress fired across the ship's bow before firing on the vessel.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The German minister at Rio De Janeiro reported to the foreign office today that 20 were killed and 35 wounded when the German steamer Baden was fired on by the guns of Copacabana fortress while leaving the Rio De Janeiro harbor. The Brazilian minister of the navy officially apologized to the German legation at Rio De Janeiro for the bombardment of the Baden, the foreign office was informed.

Rio De Janeiro, Oct. 25.—Demonstrations in favor of the revolutionary triumph continued here today. Four persons have been killed and 20 others injured in disorders since the news of the government's overthrow was received.

Dr. Getulio Vargas, the southern rebel leader, was reported in Chavantes, en route here. He was expected to hurry on to Rio De Janeiro.

There was some sporadic gunfire and considerable rioting in Sao Paulo last night and this morning. Several political clubs were wrecked and the furniture piled in the streets and burned.

The whereabouts of Dr. Julio Prestes, president-elect of Brazil, against whom the revolt was directed, were still unknown.

By C. A. POWELL (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, Oct. 25.—The revolutionary leaders who seized control of the government of Brazil yesterday amid great confusion, began today the difficult task of restoration of normal conditions under a stable provisional regime.

Formation of a "governing junta (committee)" headed by Gen. Tasso Fracasso was announced in a communique, which said deposed President Washington Luis had "handed over the government after receiving all considerations due to his high post." Washington Luis, who yesterday defiantly told the revolutionary leaders they might kill him but he would not resign, has been held prisoner in Copacabana fortress, but the communique said all members of the cabinet had been "exonerated."

A message sent to Brazilian diplomatic envoys abroad said the governing junta would include President Gen. Tasso Fracasso, Gen. Manna Barreto and Admiral alias Noronha.

The program of the junta provided for "fraternity of the Brazilian nation and fulfillment of national obligations abroad," the message said.

"The movement was realized without bloodshed and with great orderliness and respect for the deposed authorities," said the message, signed by Rinaldo, Carvalho, the new foreign minister. "The people accompanied the event with great acclamation and the city presented the aspect of a national festival."

The message failed to clear up definitely the status of the powerful southern revolutionary leaders, whose chief figure, Dr. Getulio Vargas of Rio Grande Do Sul, is due here shortly by airplane or train.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The state department was advised today by the American embassy at Rio De Janeiro that the deposed Brazilian president, Washington Luis, had been transferred from Guan palace to Copacabana fortress for safety.

A message from the American consul at Bahia, 800 miles north of Rio, said the situation there was quiet although there were some minor disturbances last night. The message said General Caronel Atsiba Osorio was in temporary charge of the town. It was assumed at the state department that Osorio was a federal general.

Joseph Boyer, Pneumatic Hammer Inventor, Dies

Detroit, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Joseph Boyer, 82, inventor of the pneumatic hammer, air drill and railway speed recorder, was dead at his home here today after a ten days illness with pneumonia.

Boyer, widely known as a philanthropist and business executive, was chairman of the board of directors of the Burroughs Adding Machine company at the time of his death.

ROYAL FAMILIES OF ITALY AND BULGARIA UNITED

PRINCESS GIOVANNA OF SAVOY IS THE BRIDE OF KING BORIS III

By THOMAS B. MORGAN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Assisi, Italy, Oct. 25.—The royal families of Italy and Bulgaria were united today when Princess Giovanna of Savoy became the bride of King Boris III of the house of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

The wedding ceremony occurred before the main altar of the upper basilica of St. Francis. The service was performed by Father Antonio Rizzo in the presence of members of both royal families.

Franciscan simplicity was observed within the church at the wish of the princess, a devoted disciple of St. Francis of Assisi, but a display of regal grandeur was witnessed in the town when the royal wedding party traversed a two-mile route from the railway station to the church, guarded by troops and preceded by communal valets in ancient costume.

The ceremony began at 11 A. M. It is the first of two which are necessitated by the differing religious faiths of Boris and Giovanna. Besides the Roman Catholic service, another will be performed by the Metropolitan Stephen, head of the Bulgarian Orthodox church, at the Great Alexander Nevsky Cathedral in Sofia.

A heavy thunderstorm broke just after the members of the two royal families entered the basilica. A heavy rain was accompanied by hail. A dozen automobiles at the end of the wedding procession were caught in the storm, but the royal couple and the wedding party entered the church safely.

Father Rizzo ascended to the altar as the royal couple knelt. Low mass was celebrated with great fervor and followed with intense devotion by the members of the royal families and the others present.

When mass was completed the nuptial ceremony was begun by the placing of the ring upon the bride's finger. The bride and groom and the witnesses signed the necessary registers after the ceremony and the procession reformed and proceeded to the lower basilica.

The wedding party proceeded slowly across the lawn of the church while a choir of 300 Franciscans, dressed in the severe garb of the order, sang a motet. The bells of the town's churches pealed the joyous news of the union as the wedding party, headed by King Boris with his bride on his arm, walked to the lower basilica.

Here the bride and groom and the entire party venerated the ashes of St. Francis in prayer before his tomb. After the visit to the lower church the wedding party proceeded to the city hall of Assisi for the civil registration of the marriage.

The royal party proceeded to Villa Costanzi, a lavish 18th century estate, for the wedding breakfast. The procession of automobiles was wildly cheered as it passed through Assisi. The narrow streets were packed with multitudes shouting "Viva Giovanna, Viva Boris!" Assisi was gayly decorated with the colors of Italy and Bulgaria. A holiday had been declared throughout the country in honor of the wedding of the beautiful princess.

The wedding veil worn by the princess, the gift of the commune of Assisi, was made by 40 local girls working in day and night shifts for three weeks. It was copied from the design of a mantle which tradition says covered St. Francis at the time of his death. The legend is that it was brought from Rome by Jacoba, a Roman noblewoman, when she heard that the saint was near death.

Witnesses for King Boris were his brother, Prince Cyril, and the Prince of Murtenberg; for Princess Giovanna, her brother, Crown Prince Humbert, and Count Calvi Bergold.

The usual pomp of royal weddings was lacking in the ceremony, which could almost be called a private family affair. There was no grand array of foreign royalty and nobility, no lavish display of gold and jewels. Ladies in waiting wore high-necked, long sleeved gowns. Military full dress uniforms gave the only touch of gaiety to the occasion.

Ornate Royal Tombs

Every Persian ruler, like all the great rulers of all the lands, of all time, took great care to see that his body would be preserved and protected after death; and much money was spent in the erection of tombs and the carving of caves to receive these royal remains. Many of them can be seen today not far from the ancient city of Persepolis, near the Persian gulf. Some of these tombs were built of huge blocks of stone, but many others were carved out of the solid rock and their entrances then mortared up with stone.

NET EARNINGS OF GREAT NORTHERN SHOW INCREASE

FIRST MATERIAL GAIN OF YEAR IS RECORDED IN SEPTEMBER

INCOME FOR THAT MONTH IN 1929, HIGHER THAN SAME MONTH IN 1929

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—The monthly net earnings of the Great Northern railway showed the first material gain of the year in September, Ralph Budd, president of the railroad announced today.

Net income of the Great Northern in September was $486,849 higher than in September, 1929.

Earnings figures of the Northern Pacific railroad, released today, showed a $529,661 decrease over September of last year but were $1,100,000 higher than in August of this year.

Budd interpreted the increased earnings of the Great Northern to mean that railroad operations will be more satisfactory from now on.

"While the decline in gross business of about 10 per cent is disappointing," Budd said, "the reduction in operating expenses making possible the gain in net earnings is most gratifying. In as much as 1929 was a record year, monthly comparisons have shown material decreases this year. However, returns will be more satisfactory from now on and it means that we have passed through the period of depression in earnings."

Great Northern net operating income for the first nine months of the year amounted to $13,913,178, a decrease of $8,649,061 from 1929. Northern Pacific operating income for nine months totalled $8,893,221, a decrease of $6,172,325.

NET EARNINGS OF GREAT NORTHERN SHOW INCREASE

FIRST MATERIAL GAIN OF YEAR IS RECORDED IN SEPTEMBER

INCOME FOR THAT MONTH IN 1929, HIGHER THAN SAME MONTH IN 1929

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—(AP)—The monthly net earnings of the Great Northern railway showed the first material gain of the year in September, Ralph Budd, president of the railroad announced today.

Net income of the Great Northern in September was $486,849 higher than in September, 1929.

Earnings figures of the Northern Pacific railroad, released today, showed a $529,661 decrease over September of last year but were $1,100,000 higher than in August of this year.

Budd interpreted the increased earnings of hte Great Northern to mean that railroad operations will be more satisfactory from now on.

"While the decline in gross business of about 10 per cent is disappointing," Budd said, "the reduction in operating expenses making possible the gain in net earnings is most gratifying. In as much as 1929 was a record year, monthly comparisons have shown material decreases this year. However, returns will be more satisfactory from now on and it means that we have passed through the period of depression in earnings."

Great Northern net operating income for the first nine months of the year amounted to $13,913,178, a decrease of $8,649,061 from 1929. Northern Pacific operating income for nine months totalled $8,893,221, a decrease of $6,172,325.

Human Alarm Clocks

In some of the English slums, laborers pay a ha'penny a week to a professional caller up, who makes his rounds every morning, tapping on windows with a long pole until the language that he hears within advises him that the client is awake.—Country Home.

CATHEDRAL TOMB OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

RESISTS GALE IN SANTO DOMINGO DISASTER

"HISPANIOLA," the island which Christopher Columbus "loved above all other lands" and known in these modern days as the Dominican Republic, was the scene of a terrible hurricane in early September, which called all of the forces of relief, including the American Red Cross, into action.

With two thousand dead and almost ten thousand wounded, the beautiful island's capital city of Santo Domingo, was almost totally wrecked. The American Red Cross gave $50,000 from its treasury toward the relief work and generous aid came to the republic from other nations. Navy and Marine aviators of the United States carried in Red Cross medical supplies and established communication. The Red Cross sent an expert relief director to aid the American committee, organized by Governor Theodore Roosevelt of Porto Rico, adjoining island.

President Trujillo of the republic performed a magnificent task in organizing the nation's forces to doctor the injured, and protect the health of survivors.

The Dominican Republic was the first seat in the Western World of European civilization, as it was upon that island that Christopher Columbus planted his first colony. In the magnificent Cathedral in Santo Domingo—a very ancient structure—is a monument containing a bronze casket in which are the reputed bones of the discoverer of America.

The Cathedral was untouched by the fierce gales, which laid waste more than ninety per cent of the dwellings in the city.

This was the first disaster in the new fiscal year of the Red Cross, which had just closed its books showing relief given by the national organization and chapters in 108 disasters, with expenditures of $1,208,151 for relief, in the preceding year.

CATHEDRAL TOMB OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

RESISTS GALE IN SANTO DOMINGO DISASTER

"HISPANIOLA," the island which Christopher Columbus "loved above all other lands" and known in these modern days as the Dominican Republic, was the scene of a terrible hurricane in early September, which called all of the forces of relief, including the American Red Cross, into action.

With two thousand dead and almost ten thousand wounded, the beautiful island's capital city of Santo Domingo, was almost totally wrecked. The American Red Cross gave $50,000 from its treasury toward the relief work and generous aid came to the republic from other nations. Navy and Marine aviators of the United States carried in Red Cross medical supplies and established communication. The Red Cross sent an expert relief director to aid the American committee, organized by Governor Theodore Roosevelt of Porto Rico, adjoining island.

President Trajillo of the republic performed a magnificent task in organizing the nation's forces to doctor the injured, and protect the health of survivors.

The Dominican Republic was the first seat in the Western World of European civilization, as it was upon that island that Christopher Columbus planted his first colony. In the magnificent Cathedral in Santo Domingo—a very ancient structure—is a monument containing a bronze casket in which are the reputed bones of the discoverer of America.

The Cathedral was untouched by the fierce gales, which laid waste more than ninety per cent of the dwellings in the city.

This was the first disaster in the new fiscal year of the Red Cross, which had just closed its books showing relief given by the national organization and chapters in 1928 disasters; with expenditures of $1,208,151 for relief, in the preceding year.

The Red Cross gave relief in twelve foreign countries last year, in addition to standing by to relieve all distress at home caused by catastrophes. Demands upon the society for this help are increasing each year. The funds necessary for instant action, for maintaining expert personnel and providing a surplus from which appropriations can be made immediately, are raised through the annual roll call which the Red Cross holds each year in the period from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Each person joining as a member becomes a supporter of this relief work.

To Abolish Stockholders' Double Liability

THE Minnesota State Bar Association has taken the initiative in the formation of a Citizens' Volunteer Committee for Amendment No. 1, which will be submitted to the voters at the general election, November 4. Hilding Swanson of Brainerd is chairman of the committee for Crow Wing county. The public is practically unanimous in favor of the change. The only danger is that so many voters will fail to mark the amendment ballot. To make the change vote "Yes."

Persons holding stock in corporations organized under the laws of Minnesota always run the risk of an assessment on account of the Double Stockholders' Liability imposed, not by statutory law, a law enacted by the Legislature, but by a law which is part of the Constitution of the State adopted in 1857.

This provision is contained in Section 3 of Article X of the State Constitution, which reads:

"Each stockholder in any corporation, excepting those organized for the purpose of carrying on any kind of manufacturing or mechanical business, shall be liable to the amount of stock held or owned by him."

Minnesota now stands alone among the states in which this double liability is imposed on stockholders. As a result, the people who have to organize corporations to transact their business, organize them under the laws of other states. Minnesota thereby loses considerable revenue. It is practically impossible to organize cooperative associations to transact business in this State under any laws other than the law of this State. If the constitutional law is not amended, it will affect cooperative associations more than any other corporations. The burden of this liability generally falls on the farmer, laboring man, or small investor, who either subscribes to stock to support a good cause or buys stock in a local institution that he is interested in, without appreciating the fact of this constitutional ball and chain.

Efforts to remove this provision from the Constitution have so far failed because the voters have not fully appreciated the importance of the amendment. Some misunderstood just what the amendment proposes to accomplish. This was partly due to the wording of the amendment, as it confers power on the Legislature to provide for and limit such liability. By substituting the amendment for the constitutional provision as it reads now, the stockholders' liability is immediately abolished. It is safe to say that no legislature would attempt to impose such liability against the almost unanimous opposition of the people.

As it stands now, the Legislature is helpless. It cannot pass any law abolishing this liability, as the law would be unconstitutional as long as Section 3 remains in force. By giving the Legislature such power the constitutional ball and chain would be removed.

The amendment reads as follows:

"The Legislature shall have the power from time to time to provide for, limit and otherwise regulate the liability of stockholders or members of corporations and cooperative corporations or associations, however organized. Provided every stockholder in a banking or trust corporation or association shall be individually liable in an amount equal to the amount of stock owned by him for all debts of such corporation contracted prior to any transfer of such stock and such individual liability shall continue for one year after any transfer of such stock and the entry thereof on the books of the corporation or association."

See Chapter 429, Laws 1929.

As it reads, the double liability of stockholders in banking and trust corporations is retained which, of course, is for the protection of the depositors.

The proposed amendment has been endorsed by the Minnesota State Bar Association and by the Minnesota Association of District Court Judges. It has also been endorsed by the Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., the Central Cooperative Association, the Twin City Milk Producers Association, the Franklin Cooperative Creamery Association, and other cooperative associations, the Minnesota Farm Bureau, the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs and by business men generally throughout the state.

The amendment has been submitted to the people of the State at two prior elections, and although the YES votes at each of these elections were more than double the NO votes, the amendment did not carry, for the reason that in order to carry, a constitutional amendment must receive not a majority vote of YES over NO, but it must receive a majority of all votes cast at the election.

Use of Trailer Increases

HERE in the lake country a trailer has many uses. It serves as the carrier of stuff to the lake cottage. It is a direct aid to the hunter and fisherman carrying his equipment.

Many families buy wood stumps, get out their winter's fuel and haul it on the trailer. Wood burns well in late fall and its use helps to reduce the coal bill. There is no substitute, however, for coal when one must keep sustained heat during the night.

ALUMNI of the University of Minnesota in all parts of the United States will have an opportunity to hear Rudy Valee and his orchestra play the Minnesota Rouser over a national radio network of 42 stations the Thursday night before the Gophers play Northwestern.

WHAT with all the revolutions in South America and the Chinese civil war, one has lost track of the war supposed to have engaged the attention of Soviet Russia and China.

BANKERS of six northwest states will meet November 7 at Minneapolis to lay plans to protect their institutions against bank bandits.

ONE reason why it is hard to understand woman is because she never wants to make herself plain, says the Louisville Times.

THE first shipment of musk oxen through the Northwest passed through St. Paul this week.

Other People's Opinions

Communications are not to exceed 100 words. All must be signed, and will be published with name of writer.

Brainerd, Minn.
October 24, 1936.

Editor Brainerd Dispatch.

In an editorial under date of Oct. 23 the editor of the Brainerd Tribune took the liberty to name me as an undercover detective working for the County Attorney and would have the people believe that I received a large part of a $1500 contingent fund.

It will now most certainly tax my "detective" abilities to find the other $1370 as I can use the money.

I would like to make these few statements to Mr. Ericson and the public:

First, that I have never informed any one that I was an undercover detective for the County Attorney's office.

That I have this year made four or five investigations for Mr. Sullivan and one for the City Attorney, Mr. Fullerton, which were all successful and for which I received from the County Attorney on his investigations about $130.

Mr. Fullerton, the City Attorney, complimented me very highly on the results obtained in two investigations for the County Attorney.

To give the public and Mr. Ericson some idea of the kind of work done will cite him to the Gustafson-Nelson store holdup. Working for Mr. Sullivan I secured the evidence resulting in the arrest of Carrol Pollock and a complete confession from Earl Horn, his accomplice. This can be easily verified by Mr. Meschke of the State Highway Patrol.

It would seem that Mr. Ericson of the Tribune could have had the facts very easily on all cases as there has never been anything to cover up.

I do not care to mix into the political situation in this article and had Mr. Fullerton's professional relations with me been questioned would have defended him just as readily.

If Mr. Ericson would deal in facts this article would be unnecessary on my part.

The Editor,
Brainerd Dispatch,
Brainerd, Minn.

Dear Sir:

I am inclosing herewith a copy of a letter which I have today forwarded to Mr. A. L. Thwing at Grand Rapids. The letter is self-explanatory and I will appreciate it greatly if you will print it in your columns.

Yours very truly,

DONALD I. RYAN.

October 25, 1936

Mr. A. L. Thwing,
Grand Rapids, Minn.

Dear Sir:

On October 21st you were kindly invited by the League of Women Voters of Brainerd to speak before the citizens of Brainerd in behalf of your candidacy.

You appeared here and, instead of discussing the issues of this campaign in a straightforward manner, as did the county candidates present, you chose to use your time discussing elemental American History. On my part, I discussed the legitimate issues of the campaign in what I considered an honest and respectful manner. Instead of being satisfied with the opportunity given you by the League of Women Voters of presenting your candidacy to the people of Brainerd when you were face to face with me and I had an opportunity of replying to your insinuations, you chose to reply to me through the means of a paid advertisement in the Brainerd Dispatch—something no other candidate present at that meeting has done.

In that advertisement you made charges and insinuations against the honor and integrity of Judge Ryan, who has had the respect of the citizens of this county for nearly thirty years. You apparently lacked the courage to make those charges in your public appearance in this town. What is worse, you have circulated these baseless charges throughout the district.

I will give you a fair opportunity to make and substantiate those charges in an open, honest manner before the people of Crow Wing County. I will give, at my own expense, the High School Auditorium for any evening during the week commencing October 26th and will pay your expenses in coming here, if you will take the affirmative of those charges in a debate with me.

Will you kindly let me know as soon as possible if you will come and, if so, what evening, so that I can make arrangements?

Any evasion or refusal on your part will be conclusive evidence to the people of this county and the district that you prefer the safety of newspaper advertising to the scrutinizing effect of the open platform.

Yours truly,

DONALD I. RYAN.

AN EXPLANATION OF SOME RADIO TERMS

It is probably confusing to many to have the merits of radio sets listed in terms of power tubes, screen grid, and the like. A brief explanation may help you in judging radio receivers.

"Power tubes" are simply radio tubes that are capable of handling a considerable amount of power without being overloaded. They are used for driving the loudspeaker, so that reproduction of very good quality may be obtained even with loud volume.

The "screen grid tube" is a comparatively recent development that greatly improves the performance of radio receivers. It eliminates the squeaks and squawks of old-style radios. At the same time it improves the ability to receive distant stations and to select between stations crowded close together on the dial.

"Automatic volume control" is a system for automatically regulating the response of the receiver so reception from strong and weak stations is at about the same volume. It does not replace the volume control on the receiver, but makes reception more uniform, thus avoiding the loud blasts of powerful stations as you change from one station to another. It also helps to eliminate the "fading" of signals occasionally encountered with an ordinary receiver.

"It's the little things that tell"

That's what big sister said to her boy friend as she pulled little brother out from under the sofa. But wait till big sister and the boy friend are man and wife, with a home of their own to run. Then how much more she'll realize the truth of her observation!

For then the age old problems will come pressing hard. So much in the pocketbook. So much on the shopping list. Will it fit? Then's when the little things make the big difference. The little savings—the small economies—the slightly better values of which a good housekeeper takes advantage.

Then's when big sister will read the advertisements as she never read them before. Comparing values; learning reliable brands; watching the bargain and reduction announcements. . . . The advertisements will help her in a thousand ways to take care of the little things, acquire the little short-cuts in time and effort—in the big job of running a home.

Read the advertisements every day. Consistently advertised goods are worthy of your confidence . . . otherwise they couldn't be consistently advertised

To Abolish Stockholders' Double Liability

THE Minnesota State Bar Association has taken the initiative in the formation of a Citizens' Volunteer Committee for Amendment No. 1, which will be submitted to the voters at the general election, November 4. Hiding Swanson of Brainerd is chairman of the committee for Crow Wing county. The public is practically unanimous in favor of the change. The only danger is that so many voters will fail to mark the amendment ballot. To make the change vote "Yes."

Persons holding stock in corporations organized under the laws of Minnesota always run the risk of an assessment on account of the Double Stockholders' Liability imposed, not by statutory law, a law enacted by the Legislature, but by a law which is part of the Constitution of the State adopted in 1857.

This provision is contained in Section 3 of Article X of the State Constitution, which reads:

"Each stockholder in any corporation, excepting those organized for the purpose of carrying on any kind of manufacturing or mechanical business, shall be liable to the amount of stock held or owned by him."

Minnesota now stands alone among the states in which this double liability is imposed on stockholders. As a result, the people who have to organize corporations to transact their business, or organize them under the laws of other states. Minnesota thereby loses considerable revenue. It is practically impossible to organize cooperative associations to transact business in this State under any laws other than the law of this State. If the constitutional law is not amended, it will affect cooperative associations more than any other corporations. The burden of this liability generally falls on the farmer, laboring man, or small investor, who either subscribes to stock to support a good cause or buys stock in a local institution that he is interested in, without appreciating the fact of this constitutional ball and chain.

Efforts to remove this provision from the Constitution have so far failed because the voters have not fully appreciated the importance of the amendment. Some misunderstanding just what the amendment proposes to accomplish. This was partly due to the wording of the amendment, as it confers power on the Legislature to provide for and limit such liability. By substituting the amendment for the constitutional provision as it reads now, the stockholders' liability is immediately abolished. It is safe to say that no legislature would attempt to impose such liability against the almost unanimous opposition of the people.

As it stands now, the Legislature is helpless. It cannot pass any law abolishing this liability, as the law would be unconstitutional as long as Section 3 remains in force. By giving the Legislature such power the constitutional ball and chain would be removed.

The amendment reads as follows:

"The Legislature shall have the power from time to time to provide for, limit and otherwise regulate the liability of stockholders or members of corporations and cooperative corporations or associations, however organized. Provided every stockholder in a banking or trust corporation or association shall be individually liable in an amount equal to the amount of stock owned by him for all debts of such corporation contracted prior to any transfer of such stock and such individual liability shall continue for one year after any transfer of such stock and the entry thereof on the books of the corporation or association."

See Chapter 429, Laws 1929.

As it reads, the double liability of stockholders in banking and trust corporations is retained which, of course, is for the protection of the depositors.

The proposed amendment has been endorsed by the Minnesota State Bar Association and by the Minnesota Association of District Court Judges. It has also been endorsed by the Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., the Central Cooperative Association, the Twin City Milk Producers Association, the Franklin Cooperative Creamery Association, and other cooperative associations, the Minnesota Farm Bureau, the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs and by business men generally throughout the state.

The amendment has been submitted to the people of the State at two prior elections, and although the YES votes at each of these elections were more than double the NO votes, the amendment did not carry, for the reason that in order to carry, a constitutional amendment must receive not a majority vote of YES over NO, but it must receive a majority of all votes cast at the election.

Use of Trailer Increases

HERE in the lake country a trailer has many uses. It serves as the carrier of stuff to the lake cottage. It is a direct aid to the hunter and fisherman carrying his equipment.

Many families buy wood stumps, get out their winter's fuel and haul it on the trailer. Wood burns well in late fall and its use helps to reduce the coal bill. There is no substitute, however, for coal when one must keep sustained heat during the night.

ALUMNI of the University of Minnesota in all parts of the United States will have an opportunity to hear Rudy Vallee and his orchestra play the Minnesota Rouser over a national radio network of 42 stations the Thursday night before the Gophers play Northwestern.

WHAT with all the revolutions in South America and the Chinese civil war, one has lost track of the war supposed to have engaged the attention of Soviet Russia and China.

BANKERS of six northwest states will meet November 7 at Minneapolis to lay plans to protect their institutions against bank bandits.

ONE reason why it is hard to understand woman is because she never wants to make herself plain, says the Louisville Times.

THE first shipment of musk oxen through the Northwest passed through St. Paul this week.

Brainerd, Minn.
October 24, 1930.

Editor Brainerd Dispatch.

In an editorial under date of Oct. 23 the editor of the Brainerd Tribune took the liberty to name me as an undercover detective working for the County Attorney and would have the people believe that I received a large part of a $1500 contingent fund.

It will now most certainly tax my "detective" abilities to find the other $1370 as I can use the money. I would like to make these few statements to Mr. Ericson and the public:

First, that I have never informed any one that I was an undercover detective for the County Attorney's office.

That I have this year made four or five investigations for Mr. Sullivan and one for the City Attorney, Mr. Fullerton, which were all successful and for which I received from the County Attorney on his investigations about $130.

Mr. Fullerton, the City Attorney, complimented me very highly on the results obtained in two investigations for the County Attorney.

To give the public and Mr. Ericson some idea of the kind of work done will cite him to the Gustafson-Nelson store holdup. Working for Mr. Sullivan I secured the evidence resulting in the arrest of Carrol Pollock and a complete confession from Earl Horn, his accomplice. This can be easily verified by Mr. Meschke of the State Highway Patrol.

It would seem that Mr. Ericson of the Tribune could have had the facts very easily on all cases as there has never been anything to cover up.

I do not care to mix into the political situation in this article and had Mr. Fullerton's professional relations with me been questioned would have defended him just as readily.

If Mr. Ericson would deal in facts this article would be unnecessary on my part.

October 25, 1930.

The Editor,
Brainerd Dispatch,
Brainerd, Minn.

Dear Sir:

I am inclosing herewith a copy of a letter which I have today forwarded to Mr. A. L. Thwing at Grand Rapids. The letter is self-explanatory and I will appreciate it greatly if you will print it in your columns.

Yours very truly,
DONALD I. RYAN.

October 25, 1930

Mr. A. L. Thwing,
Grand Rapids, Minn.

Dear Sir:

On October 21st you were kindly invited by the League of Women Voters of Brainerd to speak before the citizens of Brainerd in behalf of your candidacy.

You appeared here and, instead of discussing the issues of this campaign in a straightforward manner, as did the county candidates present, you chose to use your time discussing elemental American History. On my part, I discussed the legitimate issues of the campaign in what I considered an honest and respectful manner.

Instead of being satisfied with the opportunity given you by the League of Women Voters of presenting your candidacy to the people of Brainerd when you were face to face with me and I had an opportunity of replying to your insinuations, you chose to reply to me through the means of a paid advertisement in the Brainerd Dispatch—something no other candidate present at that meeting has done.

In that advertisement you made charges and insinuations against the honor and integrity of Judge Ryan, who has had the respect of the citizens of this county for nearly thirty years. You apparently lacked the courage to make those charges in your public appearance in this town. What is worse, you have circulated these baseless charges throughout the district.

I will give you a fair opportunity to make and substantiate those charges in an open, honest manner before the people of Crow Wing County. I will hire, at my own expense, the High School Auditorium for any evening during the week commencing October 26th and will pay your expenses in coming here, if you will take the affirmative of those charges in a debate with me.

Will you kindly let me know as soon as possible if you will come and, if so, what evening, so that I can make arrangements?

Any evasion or refusal on your part will be conclusive evidence to the people of this county and the district that you prefer the safety of newspaper advertising to the scrutinizing effect of the open platform.

Yours truly,
DONALD I. RYAN.

AN EXPLANATION OF SOME RADIO TERMS

It is probably confusing to many to have the merits of radio sets listed in terms of power tubes, screen grid, and the like. A brief explanation may help you in judging radio receivers.

"Power tubes" are simply radio tubes that are capable of handling a considerable amount of power without being overloaded. They are used for driving the loudspeaker, so that reproduction of very good quality may be obtained even with loud volume.

The "screen grid tube" is a comparatively recent development that greatly improves the performance of radio receivers. It eliminates the squeaks and squawks of old-style radios. At the same time it improves the ability to receive distant stations and to select between stations crowded close together on the dial.

"Automatic volume control" is a system for automatically regulating the response of the receiver so reception from strong and weak stations is at about the same volume. It does not replace the volume control on the receiver, but makes reception more uniform, thus avoiding the loud blasts of powerful stations as you change from one station to another. It also helps to eliminate the "fading" of signals occasionally encountered with an ordinary receiver.

"It's the little things that tell"

That's what big sister said to her boy friend as she pulled little brother out from under the sofa. But wait till big sister and the boy friend are man and wife, with a home of their own to run. Then how much more she'll realize the truth of her observation!

For then the age old problems will come pressing hard. So much in the pocketbook. So much on the shopping list. Will it fit? Then's when the little things make the big difference. The little savings—the small economies—the slightly better values of which a good housekeeper takes advantage.

Then's when big sister will read the advertisements as she never read them before. Comparing values; learning reliable brands; watching the bargain and reduction announcements. . . . The advertisements will help her in a thousand ways to take care of the little things, acquire the little short-cuts in time and effort—in the big job of running a home.

Read the advertisements every day. Consistently advertised goods are worthy of your confidence . . . otherwise they couldn't be consistently advertised

LITTLE FALLS FALLS DOWN FIGHTING BRAINERD HIGH TEAM 19-6

OLD RIVALS STAGE REAL BATTLE FOR FOOTBALL HONORS

LA FOND, LITTLE FALLS FULLBACK, WITH SMASHING DRIVE, IS BIG STAR OF THE DAY

LITTLE FALLS END INTERCEPTS PASS IN FINAL QUARTER AND RACES FOR TOUCHDOWN

By "HAPPY" COLE
A hard-driving Little Falls high school football team defeated a fighting Brainerd high school eleven in a clean, but hard-fought game at municipal field here yesterday by a score of 19-6. The game was featured by absence of injuries and penalties along with hard tackling and spirited playing by both aggregations. As the game was played the better team won, and it was a struggle worth anybody's time to see.

LaFond, big Little Falls fullback, was the outstanding player of the clash. His smashing drives into the line accounted for the bigger part of the Little Falls yardage. But Suphur, Little Falls right end, came in for his share of glory by intercepting a Brainerd pass in the closing minutes of play and racing for 18 yards and a touchdown.

The final score is not an exact indication of the difference in strength of the two teams. The score should have been 12-6, the final score coming more as a gift from a desperate fighting team willing to risk everything in the closing minutes to score a touchdown that would bring a tie and even victory if the possibility of scoring the point after the touchdown were realized.

From the Brainerd standpoint, the defensive work of Captain Garvey, Moe and Haas in the line and Gabiou and Heikkinen in the backfield and the ball lugging of little Dave Templeton were the bright lights of the game.

Little Falls Scores
The first score came near the close

WISCONSIN PITS TITLE HOPES AGAINST PURDUE TEAM

of the first quarter when after a steady drive down the field, Fred LaFond, the Little Falls backfield ace, skirted the Brainerd left end on a wide run for five yards and a touchdown. LaFond tried to buck the Brainerd line for the extra point but the B. H. S. forward wall held.

LaFond kicked off to Templeton who ran the ball almost back to midfield before finally being punted. After failing to gain Gabiou punted. The Brainerd ends were down under the kick, one of them downing it on the Little Falls 3-yard line. After failing to gain through the line, LaFond punted. The kick was almost straight up in the air and it became Brainerd's ball on the Little Falls 18-yard line. Gabiou smashed into the line for 7 yards as the quarter ended.

Templeton cut into the Little Falls line for three more yards and a first down. Heikkinen added a yard around left end and Templeton made it another first down for Brainerd with another beautiful smashing thrust into the center of the Little Falls line. First down and a yard to go for a touchdown. Another play was directed at the Little Falls line. This time it held. Still another drive into the line, the Brainerd back fumbling the ball but recovering with no gain. Third down and still a yard to go. Another line play put the ball on the Little Falls three-inch line. And on the fourth down Templeton crashed over the line for Brainerd's only score of the game. Haas tried to place-kick a goal for the extra point but the kick went wide.

Garvey Displays Ability
Haas kicked off to Little Falls. The runner was downed on the Little Falls 30-yard line. Little Falls began smashing the Brainerd line again. Here the work of Captain Garvey, Brainerd right tackle, showed at its best. Often times Garvey bowled over several of the downriver blockers to finally drag down the ball carrier.

As the second half opened Haas kicked off. It was a beautiful place kick to the Little Falls 5-yard line. Garvey downed the runner on the 10-yard line with a very pretty tackle. Little Falls tried skirting the ends and on the first attempt was thrown for a loss. A moment later LaFond tore around the right end of the Brainerd line for a 30-yard run, one of the most spectacular of the day.

LaFond added 7 more yards with a smash off left tackle. Riddle, the Little Falls right half, broke loose for a run that ended only when he was downed on the Brainerd 13-yard line by Heikkinen, the Brainerd safety man. LaFond began another dash around the Brainerd right end that ended on the Brainerd 6-yard line. LaFond smashed through right tackle to the 3-yard line for another first down. LaFond hit the line again for two yards. The next smash was also into the line and LaFond was over the line for his second touchdown of the day. LaFond tried another line smash for the point after the touchdown. Here Gabiou made one of the finest individual plays of the day and held the big, charging Little Falls fullback. Score: Little Falls, 12; Brainerd, 6.

LaFond kicked off and Templeton raced back nearly to midfield before being downed. A pass, Templeton to Gabiou, looked good for a nice gain but the speedy halfback fumbled the ball after it settled in his hands. The Little Falls forwards broke through and blocked Gabiou's punt and the ball went to the downriver school in midfield.

Tries Quick Kick
After attempting a pass LaFond tried a quick kick which soared over Heikkinen's head and rolled over goal line. Brainerd's ball on the 20-yard line. Templeton slipped off tackle for two yards. A pass, Templeton to Schuetz, was good for 12 yards and a first down. Another pass, Gabiou to Schuetz, was completed but the ball carrier was downed in his tracks for a 5-yard loss. Another pass to Schuetz although protested, was ruled incomplete by the officials as the quarter ended.

After faking a kick and then trying an end run which failed to gain, Ga-biou punted. Little Falls tried two line plays and then LaFond, standing close behind the Little Falls line, sent another quick kick over the Brainerd safety man's head, the ball being downed on the 10-yard line.

After line plays failed, Gabiou stepped back and booted a beautiful punt that went past midfield. LaFond tried another quick kick on the first play. The Brainerd line broke through and hurried the kicker, the punt going almost straight up in the air and it became Brainerd's ball on their own 40-yard line.

Two Brainerd passes were incomplete and Brainerd was penalized five yards for two incomplete passes in succession. Templeton made a beautiful shoe-string catch of Gabiou's pass on the next play for a 13-yard gain.

Gabiou punted and the Little Falls receiver was downed in his tracks on his own 30-yard line. LaFond made a beautiful 25-yard run around the Brainerd left end. Heikkinen, the Brainerd safety man, made the tackle and both players were injured on the play.

Intercepts Pass
LaFond went off the Brainerd right tackle for 2 yards and another wide end run by LaFond was good for 12 more. Another run placed the ball on the Brainerd 15-yard line. Another run around the Brainerd right end was good for five yards. Heikkinen downing the runner on the 10-yard line. Here the Brainerd line held the bucking Mr. LaFond and it became Brainerd's ball on their own 10-yard line. The time was growing very short and the desperate Brainerd quarterback called for a pass. The ball settled into the arms of Suphur, Little Falls right end. He began a mad dash for the Brainerd goal line and fell over the line as a Brainerd tackler hauled him to earth. LaFond's line buck for the extra point was successful and the score stood Little Falls 19, Brainerd 6. LaFond kicked off to Gabiou, who returned the ball nearly to midfield before being downed. A Brainerd pass was incomplete as the game ended.

BADGERS BOAST GREATEST MAN POWER IN WEST

PLAY BOILERMAKERS, 1929 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS, AT LAFAYETTE, IND.

TWO TEAMS ARE RATED ON A PAR IN STARTING STRENGTH

By DIXON STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Ross-Ade Stadium, Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 25.—Wisconsin's Badgers, boasting the greatest man-power in the west, invaded Lafayette today to pit their Big Ten title hopes against Purdue, 1929 conference champions.

With the two teams rated on a par in starting strength and the game featuring the Boiler-makers' homecoming program, a capacity attendance of 30,000 spectators was assured.

Both teams entertain hopes of winning 1930 championship honors, and with defeat carrying the added sting of elimination from the race, the rival eleven were prepared to "shoot the works" for victory.

Wisconsin was undefeated in four previous games, having amassed 142 points against Carleton, Lawrence, Chicago and Pennsylvania to lead the middle-west in scoring.

Purdue scored easy victories over Baylor and Iowa, but lost a 14 to 13 decision to Michigan in its opening Big Ten game, and its championship hopes are contingent on all Big Ten teams losing at least one game.

POWERFUL ST. MARY'S TEAM WINS 33-0 VICTORY OVER PARSONS COLLEGE

Winona, Minn., Oct. 25.—Line plunges that were good for first down after first down gave a powerful St. Mary's team a 33-0 victory over Parsons College here last night.

With Huennekins, St. Mary's fullback, unstoppable through the line, Parsons was able to hold the local team on even terms in only one quarter, the first when Coach Skemp had his reserves in.

Captain John Lynch at center and Tony Prelesnik, guard for St. Mary's, opened holes through the center of the Parsons line repeatedly for five touchdowns and 19 first downs. Parsons did not make a single first down.

Huennekins scored three touchdowns through center while Haas and Oelker made one each.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—A second state conference football championship loomed ahead today for the smoothly functioning St. Thomas team after their 19-7 defeat of Macalester last night.

With games with Hamline and Macalester remaining, the chances were thought good for the Tommies to finish undefeated after hurdling the heavy always dangerous Macs last night.

The Macalester team could not solve the fast breaking, deceptive Tommy plays last night and St. Thomas rolled up an impressive number of first downs and three touchdowns.

THERE MAY BE A LOT OF UPSETS THIS SEASON!

UNDER-RATED GRID TEAMS

SPORT BUG.

MIDSEASON is reached today throughout the American football scene, which is studded with what promises to be heart-thumping games. Notre Dame invades Pittsburgh on a Panther hunt, Army will try to squelch Yale's Albie Booth at New Haven (if that electrical Eli escapes the injury jinx 'til then), Dartmouth may dodge doom at Cambridge if its sophomore sub-climax running Toothaker can afflict John Harvard; and Fordham, renewing grid relations with New York University, is thirsting for long pent-up revenge.

Far out West, Southern California and Stanford will be embroiled in what may prove to be the most tremendous struggle of the day and perhaps the year.

Coach Howard Jones' Trojans would rather beat "Pop" Warner's team than any other on its schedule. And Stanford takes similar delight when it flattens U. S. C. Washington tests California at Seattle.

Purdue plays Wisconsin at Lafayette, and Illinois, Michigan at Ann Arbor, in two important "Big Ten" games, while Indiana journeys to Dallas for Southern Methodist and Chicago entertains Mississippi—two interesting inter-sectionals, indeed.

Down South, Georgia Tech will unlimber its best against Tulane at Atlanta, while Vanderbilt engages Alabama at Birmingham.

One of the afternoon's most colorful contests will mingle the strains of "Anchors Aweigh" and "Nassau Hall," when the Navy steams into the Tigers at Princeton, and surely the Colgate-Penn State embroglio should blaze with action.

The Sport Bug's choice of winners in the above-mentioned games are Notre Dame, Yale, Harvard, Fordham, Stanford, Washington, Purdue, Illinois, Southern Methodist, Chicago, Georgia Tech, Alabama, Princeton and Colgate. But it must be admitted the line is finely drawn in every one of those contests. The matter of victory or defeat in most of them would not be considered an "upset," yet if Pitt beats Rockne's machine, it certainly would merit that description of surprise. The "upset" season is at hand and that often is most devastating so far as football expectations are concerned.

OLD RIVALS STAGE REAL BATTLE FOR FOOTBALL HONORS

LA FOND, LITTLE FALLS FULLBACK, WITH SMASHING DRIVE, IS BIG STAR OF THE DAY

LITTLE FALLS END INTERCEPTS PASS IN FINAL QUARTER AND RACES FOR TOUCHDOWN

By "HAPPY" COLE
A hard-driving Little Falls high school football team defeated a fighting Brainerd high school eleven in a clean, but hard-fought game at municipal field here yesterday by a score of 19-6. The game was featured by absence of injuries and penalties along with hard tackling and spirited playing by both aggregations. As the game was played the better team won, and it was a struggle worth anybody's time to see.

LaFond, big Little Falls fullback, was the outstanding player of the clash. His smashing drives into the line accounted for the bigger part of the Little Falls yardage. But Suppur, Little Falls right end, came in for his share of glory by intercepting a Brainerd pass in the closing minutes of play and racing for 18 yards and a touchdown.

The final score is not an exact indication of the difference in strength of the two teams. The game should have been 12-6, the final score coming more as a gift from a desperate fighting team willing to risk everything in the closing minutes to score a touchdown that would bring a tie and even victory if the possibility of scoring the point after the touchdown were realized.

From the Brainerd standpoint, the defensive work of Captain Garvey, Moe and Hass in the line and Gabiou and Heikkinen in the backfield and the ball lugging of little Dave Templeton were the bright lights of the game.

Little Falls Scores
The first score came near the close

WISCONSIN PITS TITLE HOPES AGAINST PURDUE TEAM

of the first quarter when after a steady drive down the field, Fred LaFond, the Little Falls backfield ace, skirted the Brainerd left end on a wide run for five yards and a touchdown. LaFond tried to buck the Brainerd line for the extra point but the B. H. S. forward wall held.

LaFond kicked off to Templeton who ran the ball almost back to midfield before finally being downed. After failing to gain Gabiou punted. The Brainerd ends were down under the kick, one of them downing it on the Little Falls 3-yard line. After failing to gain through the line, LaFond punted. The kick was almost straight up in the air and it became Brainerd's ball on the Little Falls 18-yard line. Gabiou smashed into the line for 7 yards as the quarter ended.

Templeton cut into the Little Falls line for three more yards and a first down. Heikkinen added a yard around left end and Templeton made it another first down for Brainerd with another beautiful smashing thrust into the center of the Little Falls line. First down and a yard to go for a touchdown. Another play was directed at the Little Falls line. This time it held. Still another drive into the line, the Brainerd back fumbling the ball but recovering with no gain. Third down and still a yard to go. Another line play put the ball on the Little Falls three-inch line. And on the fourth down Templeton crashed over the line for Brainerd's only score of the game. Hass tried to place-kick a goal for the extra point but the kick went wide.

Garvey Displays Ability
Hass kicked off to Little Falls. The runner was downed on the Little Falls 30-yard line. Little Falls began smashing the Brainerd line again. Here the work of Captain Garvey, Brainerd right tackle, showed at its best. Often-times Garvey bowled over several of the downriver blockers to finally drag down the ball carrier.

As the second half opened Hass kicked off. It was a beautiful place kick to the Little Falls 5-yard line. Garvey downed the runner on the 10-yard line with a very pretty tackle. Little Falls tried skirting the ends and on the first attempt was thrown for a loss. A moment later LaFond tore around the right end of the Brainerd line for a 30-yard run, one of the most spectacular of the day.

LaFond added 7 more yards with a smash off left tackle. Riddle, the Little Falls right half, broke loose for a run that ended only when he was downed on the Brainerd 13-yard line by Heikkinen, the Brainerd safety man. LaFond began another dash around the Brainerd right end that ended on the Brainerd 6-yard line. LaFond smashed through right tackle to the 3-yard line for another first down. LaFond hit the line again for two yards. The next smash was also into the line and LaFond was over the line for his second touchdown of the day. LaFond tried another line smash for the point after the touchdown. Here Gabiou made one of the finest individual plays of the day and held the big, charging Little Falls fullback. Score: Little Falls, 12; Brainerd, 6.

LaFond kicked off and Templeton raced back nearly to midfield before being downed. A pass, Templeton to Gabiou, looked good for a nice gain but the speedy halfback fumbled the ball after it settled in his hands. The Little Falls forwards broke through and blocked Gabiou's punt and the ball went to the downriver school in midfield.

Tries Quick Kick
After attempting a pass LaFond tried a quick kick which soared over Heikkinen's head and rolled over goal line. Brainerd's ball on the 20-yard line. Templeton slipped off tackle for two yards. A pass, Templeton to Schuety, was good for 12 yards and a first down. Another pass, Gabiou to Schuety, was completed but the ball carrier was downed in his tracks for a 5-yard loss. Another pass to Schuety although protested, was ruled incomplete by the officials as the quarter ended.

After faking a kick and then trying an end run which failed to gain, Ga-biou punted. Little Falls tried two line plays and then LaFond, standing close behind the Little Falls line, sent another quick kick over the Brainerd safety man's head, the ball being downed on the 10-yard line.

After line plays failed, Gabiou stepped back and booted a beautiful punt that went past midfield. LaFond tried another quick kick on the first play. The Brainerd linesmen broke through and hurried the kicker, the punt going almost straight up in the air and it became Brainerd's ball on their own 40-yard line.

Two Brainerd passes were incomplete and Brainerd was penalized five yards for two incomplete passes in succession. Templeton made a beautiful shoe-string catch of Gabiou's pass on the next play for a 13-yard gain. Gabiou punted and the Little Falls receiver was downed in his tracks on his own 30-yard line. LaFond made a beautiful 25-yard run around the Brainerd left end. Heikkinen, the Brainerd safety man, made the tackle and both players were injured on the play.

Intercepts Pass
LaFond went off the Brainerd right tackle for 2 yards and another wide end run by LaFond was good for 12 more. Another run placed the ball on the Brainerd 15-yard line. Another run around the Brainerd right end was good for five yards, Heikkinen downing the runner on the 10-yard line. Here the Brainerd line held the bucking Mr. LaFond and it became Brainerd's ball on their own 10-yard line. The time was growing very short and the desperate Brainerd quarterback called for a pass. The ball settled into the arms of Suppur, Little Falls right end. He began a mad dash for the Brainerd goal line and fell over the line as a Brainerd tackle hauled him to earth. LaFond's line buck for the extra point was successful and the score stood Little Falls 19, Brainerd 6.

LaFond kicked off to Gabiou, who returned the ball nearly to midfield before being downed. A Brainerd pass was incomplete as the game ended.

Which the More Gruelling?

By HARDIN BURNLEY

GRUELLING - GAMES -
THE AVERAGE FIGHTER LASTS ONLY ABOUT 3 OR 4 YEARS, UNDER RING POUNDINGS -- BUT THE FOOTBALL PLAYER TAKES MUCH MORE PUNISHMENT THAN THE FIGHTER!

PERHAPS the most popular and amusing story ever told concerning the question as to whether professional boxing or American football is the more punishing sport is the ever green yarn concerning the one and only appearance of Jim Coffey, one-time "white hope," in a gridiron uniform. That "broth of a b'y" was going strong when the war came in '17 and Jim was drafted by some sort of service team. What a whale of a line prospect he made as they lined him up for a game in which he had to wear neither bandages nor gloves. Yet this Corkonian Carnera lasted but two scrimmages or maybe twas but one. As he limped towards the sidelines quite voluntarily, Shamus fairly groaned to the rest of the boys: "No mor-r-re of that fur-r-rme; that's no game; it's mur-r-r-thoor!"

Coffey's farewell to football epitomizes for many the answer as to which is the rougher, tougher, most painful form of strenuous fun so far as the gridiron and the ring are concerned. Yet it's not conclusive.

Consider briefly these points concerning those popular sports. Both football players and boxers start in their middle teens. The average college grid star graduates at 22 or 23; and ring efficiency is approached at about that age, in some of the lighter classes two or three years sooner. Real training is equally gruelling for both types of athletes.

Ring champions hold their titles four or five years, a study of the records indicate; football stars who continue as professionals (and the figures are rather hazy) average about six years of pro play.

Each of those sports have exceptions to those lengths of service. As champion and otherwise, Jack Britton and Johnny Dundee have been boxing for more than twenty years. Pro football has its Jim Thorpe and Al Nesser who were wonders when the Albie Booths of today were in their cradles, and those vets still play even though their once great form has departed.

In essential details, the ring and the grid would seem to be on a par as punishers. Boxer Coffey called football "mur-r-thoor." On the other hand, such football stars as Monte Munn and Sully Montgomery have been all but "murdered" in the ring.

The socking qualities of each game certainly differ in detail but they are similar in effect.

NORTHWEST ROADS START ANOTHER SPEED WAR

GREAT NORTHERN IN CUT OF 3 HOURS IN SEATTLE-ST. PAUL SCHEDULE

MILWAUKEE TO MEET IT, N. P. AND UNION PACIFIC MAY FOLLOW

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—The northwest's railroads have started another speed war.

The Great Northern announced a cut of three hours in its schedules between Seattle and St. Paul to a running time of 48 hours between the two cities and 10 hours more to Chicago.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road announced it would meet the Great Northern competition while unofficially it was said the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific lines will make announcements before the new schedule goes into effect on Nov. 9.

Since June, 1929, when the first drastic time cut since the world war was announced, the northwest's railroads have reduced their running time between Chicago and the Pacific northwest by ten hours. Most of this reduction had taken place between the Twin Cities and Seattle and Spokane.

The new schedules were aimed to give Seattle and Spokane a more advantageous departure time on the Great Northern's and St. Paul's deluxe trains.

The Empire Builder will leave Seattle at 9:30 P. M. instead of 6 P. M., arrive Spokane at 7:30 A. M. instead of 4 A. M., arrive in St. Paul at 11 P. M. instead of 10:30 P. M. and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 A. M. instead of 9 A. M.

The Olympian will leave Seattle at 9:30 P. M. instead of 6:15 P. M., arrive St. Paul at 11:15 P. M. instead of 10:50 P. M. and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 A. M. instead of 9:15 A. M.

Webster, Wis., Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Locking five persons in the vault, two youthful bandits held up the Burnett County State Bank of $1,000 today and escaped in a small coupe.

Three employees and two customers were in the bank when the raid took place. While one bandit stood guard over the people, his companion took the cash from the till and vault.

After forcing the five people into the vault, the bandits fled from the bank. The victims were imprisoned for nearly 15 minutes before the vault could be opened.

The men escaped in a car bearing a Minnesota license.

NORTHWEST ROADS START ANOTHER SPEED WAR

GREAT NORTHERN IN CUT OF 3
HOURS IN SEATTLE-ST. PAUL SCHEDULE

MILWAUKEE TO MEET IT, N. P.
AND UNION PACIFIC MAY FOLLOW

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—(UP)—The northwest's railroads have started another speed war.

The Great Northern announced a cut of three hours in its schedules between Seattle and St. Paul to a running time of 48 hours between the two cities and 10 hours more to Chicago.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road announced it would meet the Great Northern competition while unofficially it was said the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific lines will make announcements before the new schedule goes into effect on Nov. 9.

Since June, 1929, when the first drastic time cut since the world war was announced, the northwest's railroads have reduced their running time between Chicago and the Pacific northwest by ten hours. Most of this reduction had taken place between the Twin Cities and Seattle and Spokane.

The new schedules were aimed to give Seattle and Spokane a more advantageous departure time on the Great Northern's and St. Paul's deluxe trains.

The Empire Builder will leave Seattle at 9:30 P. M. instead of 6 P. M., arrive Spokane at 7:30 A. M. instead of 4 A. M., arrive in St. Paul at 11 P. M. instead of 10:30 P. M. and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 A. M. instead of 9 A. M.

The Olympian will leave Seattle at 9:30 P. M. instead of 6:15 P. M., arrive St. Paul at 11:15 P. M. instead of 10:50 P. M. and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 A. M. instead of 9:15 A. M.

LYCEUM LEASE TAKEN OVER BY THE BURG CO.

Negotiations Closed by Public and
Burg Officials Taking Over
20 Year Lease

WORK TO START MONDAY

F. J. Britton and Son Awarded Contract; New Location to be Occupied Dec. 1

The Burg Co. will open business in the old Lyceum theatre location, corner of Laurel and Sixth street on December 1, according to announcement made today of the transfer of the lease from the Public Theatre Corporation and subsequent awarding of the rebuilding contract to F. J. Britton and Son, work to start Monday.

This important change in downtown business locations came jointly from L. J. Burg, treasurer of The Burg Co. and Harry Greenberg, manager of the Brainerd Paramount theatre.

Negotiations closed by the two companies call for the transfer of the lease for 20 years.

In compliance with their usual custom in construction work, The Burg Co. official announced that all outside bidders for the remodeling work here had been rejected in favor of local contractors.

Mr. Burg further announced that "a good many thousands of dollars will be spent there and we want to leave all of it in Brainerd if possible." Brainerd union labor will be employed while Brainerd material as far as possible will be purchased, he stated.

Plans for the new store call for complete remodeling of the exterior and interior with two entrances on Laurel street and one on Sixth street, renovation of the interior, new modern lighting system, steel supports for the new floors and steel and concrete supports for the walls, stock room in the basement and a delivery chute from Sixth street.

The exterior design will be granite base, the top of tapestry glass with copper tracings.

The Burg Co. will continue to do business as in the past six years at its location on Front street until the new store is ready for occupancy.

"We are happy to announce final negotiations closed with The Burg Co. who will now occupy the Lyceum theatre property. It pleases us to have as reliable a firm as The Burg Co. take over our lease," Mr. Greenberg said, announcing also that equipment in the old theatre will be removed with the progress of construction.

LOMBARDI ADDS HIS PRAISE TO PICTURE

The Paramount theatre received today the following comment on the picture "Song O' My Heart" featuring John McCormack from Luigi Lombardi, director of the Range Symphony Orchestra:

"It gives me pleasure to state that having had the opportunity to see and hear 'Song O' My Heart' I liked the production very much indeed. I think that the picture is most interesting, deeply educational and extremely pleasing to the general taste. No lover of good things, artistic or otherwise, should miss seeing and hearing the great John McCormack." "Song O' My Heart" will be presented at the Paramount theatre Sunday only.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

For which regular advertising rates are to be paid, inserted in behalf of ALFRED L. THWING, of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, candidate for Judge of District Court of the Fifteenth Judicial District, by Thwings County Thwing for Judge Voluntary Committee, C. C. Peterson, of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, secretary.

October 14, 1930

Editor, Brainerd Daily Dispatch, Brainerd, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:

During the 30 years of my judgeship I have received many assurances of friendship throughout the various counties of the district. I am deeply appreciative of this, and because of it, feel justified in making this statement.

From time to time there have come to my notice rumors that my application for retirement, made in January last, was designed to bring about the developments that followed. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

Early in January I communicated to Mr. M. E. Ryan my determination not to be a candidate to succeed myself. I did so because I deemed that he, as President of the Crow Wing county bar association, was in the best position to make my plans known to the members of the bar. I regret that this course was not pursued. I distinctly had no desire to have any part in giving an advantage or disadvantage to any lawyer who might aspire to the position.

Following my communication to him Mr. Ryan visited me and strongly urged my applying for retirement, and I acted on his advice. The prompt action of the governor in appointing my successor for the remainder of my term was as little expected by me as it was by the other lawyers and people of the district.

I wish to say, further, that I have known both of the candidates for this office many years, and have had occasion to observe their conduct in the practice of their profession and I state without hesitation that I consider Mr. Thwing the better choice. He is a lawyer of parts, not limited to any specialized character of professional work. In my judgment he is possessed of superior qualifications, whether we consider judicial temperament or otherwise. The question of residence is of minor importance, even from the point of view of the voters of Crow Wing county. Of course, fundamentally, the qualifications of the respective candidates should carry the first appeal.

I make this statement without having any understanding with Mr. Thwing. It is the privilege of every citizen to openly express his preference, and the circumstances of this contest seem to make it especially fitting that I should do so. My being out of active practice, and therefore free from the embarrassments confronting the other lawyers is one of those circumstances.

To sum the matter up, I shall vote for Thwing for judge, and hope every other voter will be likewise actuated.

Very respectfully yours,

W. S. McCLENAHAN

TOLLEFSEN TRIO LAUDED ELSEWHERE

Brainerd Audience to Have Opportunity to Judge Artists Here Tomorrow

OPEN MUSICAL CLUB SEASON

Neighboring Villages and Towns Cooperate to Make Season Here Successful

The Tollefsen Trio, to appear tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Elks' Temple under the auspices of the Brainerd Musical club, played in St. Cloud Thursday evening, opening the 1930-1931 Teachers' College course. The St. Cloud Journal Press has the following to say regarding their performance: "Mastery of technique and the splendid musicianship of each artist were gratifyingly displayed in the solo numbers played by each. 'The Serenade Espagnole' by Glazounow in cello arrangement, served as a vehicle to bring out the facility of interpretation of the cellist Robert Thrane.

"Faultless technique and the swift sure touch of the artist were displayed in the solo numbers of Augusta Tollefsen, pianist. That she may lay claim to being a brilliant pianist is easily conceded after hearing her performance of Saint-Saens' 'Allegro Appassionata'.

"The refined beauty eminently recognized as belonging to the violin was revealed in the manner with which Carl Tollefsen brought out the serene melodies of Evensens' 'Romance' and Hobay's 'Scenes de La Czaras'."

The Brainerd Musical club is endeavoring to present in their winter concerts the very best of programs for Brainerd, and urge the cooperation of the Brainerd ladies. Those in charge report they have received splendid cooperation from all the neighboring villages and a similar response from the local ladies.

Tomorrow's program the first of the club's new season is as follows:

FIRST BAPTISTS IN NEW CHURCH HOME

To Enjoy for Some Weeks Hospitality of First Congregational Church

SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS

Next Sunday Morning Worship to be Period for Both Congregations

During the next few weeks, while waiting for the completion of their building, the members and friends of the First Baptist church will enjoy the kind hospitality of the First Congregational church in the use of the Congregational church building for their services.

The Sunday morning service at 10:45 o'clock, will be a period of worship with both congregations joining. Following this service the First Baptist church school will meet, which is a change for this organization from 9:45 a. m. to the noon hour.

Then at 7 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. will meet and at 7:45 the First Baptist church evening service will be conducted, with Mr. Valiant preaching Sunday evening on the subject, "God's Handwriting."

The members of the First Baptist church and congregation appreciate very much the kind offer of the First Congregational church as to the use of their fine building. Both congregations are expecting in this arrangement, a season of delightful christian fellowship.

TRUNK HIGHWAYS GENERALLY GOOD

Graveled trunk highways continue generally good in all parts of the state, according to the weekly road condition report issued by the Minnesota Highway department today. In many sections, the report says, roads are better than they have been for many months. The exceptions are stretches under construction or recently completed. Detours and road under construction are becoming fewer each week.

Detailed reports follow insofar as they refer to the Brainerd Lake Region:

T. H. No. 2—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit Lakes and Moorhead—260 miles—Duluth, paved—Carlton, fair—Cromwell, good, 1 mile construction, poor—McGregor, 39 mile detour, good—Aitkin, good—Detroit Lakes, paved—Moorhead.

T. H. No. 18—Elk River, Milaca and Brainerd—103 miles—Good.

T. H. No. 19—Brainerd, Walker and Cass Lake—93 miles—Brainerd, good—Pine River, construction, fair—Lathrop, good—Cass Lake.

3 GANGSTER SUSPECTS HELD ON A CHARGE OF INCITING RIOT

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 25.—(UP)—Three gangster suspects were held today on a charge of inciting riot in connection with the attempted assassination last night of Raymond Nightland, federal under-cover agent.

A burst of machine gun fire from an automobile was directed at Nightland as he entered his home. He dropped to the floor as the fire raked the entire front of the house. He was uninjured.

Police arrested three reputed members of the Dill Lias gang.

Nightland had been active in gathering information for the government in a mammoth roundup of Wheeling liquor suspects. The grand jury recently indicted 98 of the 100 persons against whom the agent had supplied information.

N. D. TURKEY CROP IS BELOW NORMAL

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 25.—(UP)—The North Dakota turkey crop is 12 per cent under that of last year, the U. S. crop reporting service estimated today.

Turkey crops through the middle west are short due to the summer's drought, the service said. The efficiency in the midwest is made up by a heavy increase of production in eastern states, the report said.

Minnesota was reported as having 90 per cent of her 1929 crop with South Dakota at 92 per cent and Montana at 85.

LYCEUM LEASE TAKEN OVER BY THE BURG CO.

Negotiations Closed by Publix and
Burg Officials Taking Over
20 Year Lease

WORK TO START MONDAY

F. J. Britton and Son Awarded Contract; New Location to be Occupied Dec. 1

The Burg Co. will open business in the old Lyceum theatre location, corner of Laurel and Sixth street on December 1, according to announcement made today of the transfer of the lease from the Publix Theatre Corporation and subsequent awarding of the rebuilding contract to F. J. Britton and Son, work to start Monday.

This important change in downtown business locations came jointly from L. J. Burg, treasurer of The Burg Co. and Harry Greenberg, manager of the Brainerd Paramount theatre.

Negotiations closed by the two companies call for the transfer of the lease for 20 years.

In compliance with their usual custom in construction work, The Burg Co. official announced that all outside bidders for the remodeling work here had been rejected in favor of local contractors.

Mr. Burg further announced that "a good many thousands of dollars will be spent there and we want to leave all of it in Brainerd if possible."

Brainerd union labor will be employed while Brainerd material as far as possible will be purchased, he stated.

Plans for the new store call for complete remodeling of the exterior and interior with two entrances on Laurel street and one on Sixth street, entire renovation of the interior, new modern lighting system, steel supports for the new floors and steel and concrete supports for the walls, stock room in the basement and a delivery chute from Sixth street.

The exterior design will be granite base, the top of tapestry glass with copper framings.

The Burg Co. will continue to do business as in the past six years at its location on Front street until the new store is ready for occupancy.

"We are happy to announce final negotiations closed with The Burg Co. who will now occupy the Lyceum theatre property." It pleases us to have as reliable a firm as The Burg Co. take over our lease," Mr. Greenberg said, announcing also that equipment in the old theatre will be removed with the progress of construction.

LOMBARDI ADDS HIS PRAISE TO PICTURE

The Paramount theatre received today the following comment on the picture "Song O' My Heart" featuring John McCormack from Luigi Lombardi, director of the Range Symphony Orchestra:

"It gives me pleasure to state that having had the opportunity to see and hear 'Song O' My Heart' I liked the production very much indeed. I think that the picture is most interesting, deeply educational and extremely pleasing to the general taste. No lover of good things, artistic or otherwise, should miss seeing and hearing the great John McCormack." "Song O' My Heart" will be presented at the Paramount theatre Sunday only.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

For which regular advertising rates are to be paid, insert in behalf of ALFRED L. THWING, of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, candidate for Judge of District Court of the Fifteenth Judicial District, by Isaac County Thwings for Judge Voluntary Committee; C. C. Peterson, of Grand Rapids, Minnesota, secretary.

October 14, 1930

Editor, Brainerd Daily Dispatch,
Brainerd, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:

During the 30 years of my judgeship I have received many assurances of friendship throughout the various counties of the district. I am deeply appreciative of this, and, because of it, feel justified in making this statement.

From time to time there have come to my notice rumors that my application for retirement, made in January last, was designed to bring about the developments that followed. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

Early in January I communicated to Mr. M. E. Ryan my determination not to be a candidate to succeed myself. I did so because I deemed that, as President of the Crow Wing county bar association, was in the best position to make my plans known to the members of the bar. I regret that this course was not pursued. I distinctly had no desire to have any part in giving an advantage or disadvantage to any lawyer who might aspire to the position.

Following my communication to him Mr. Ryan visited me and strongly urged my applying for retirement, and I acted on his advice. The prompt action of the governor in appointing my successor for the remainder of my term was as little expected by me as it was by the other lawyers and people of the district.

I wish to say, further, that I have known both of the candidates for this office many years, and have had occasion to observe their conduct in the practice of their profession and I state without hesitation that I consider Mr. Thwing the better choice. He is a lawyer of parts, not limited to any specialized character of professional work. In my judgment he is possessed of superior qualifications, whether we consider judicial temperament or otherwise. The question of residence is of minor importance, even from the point of view of the voters of Crow Wing county. Of course, fundamentally, the qualifications of the respective candidates should carry the first appeal.

I make this statement without having any understanding with Mr. Thwing. It is the privilege of every citizen to openly express his preference, and the circumstances of this contest seem to make it especially fitting that I should do so. My being out of active practice, and therefore free from the embarrassments confronting the other lawyers is one of those circumstances.

To sum the matter up, I shall vote for Thwing for judge, and hope every other voter will be likewise actuated.

Very respectfully yours,
W. S. MCLENAHAN

TOLLEFSEN TRIO LAUDED ELSEWHERE

Brainerd Audience to Have Opportunity to Judge Artists Here Tomorrow

OPEN MUSICAL CLUB SEASON

Neighboring Villages and Towns Cooperate to Make Season Here Successful

The Tollefsen Trio, to appear tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Elks' Temple under the auspices of the Brainerd Musical club, played in St. Cloud Thursday evening, opening the 1930-1931 Teachers' College course. The St. Cloud Journal Press has the following to say regarding their performance: "Mastery of technique and the splendid musicianship of each artist were gratifyingly displayed in the solo numbers played by each. 'The Serenade Espagnole' by Glazounow in cello arrangement, served as a vehicle to bring out the facility of interpretation of the cellist Robert Thrane.

"Faultless technique and the swift sure touch of the artist were displayed in the solo numbers of Augusta Tollefsen, pianist. That she may lay claim to being a brilliant pianist is easily conceded after hearing her performance of Saint-Saens 'Allegro Appassionata.'"

"The refined beauty eminently recognized as belonging to the violin was revealed in the manner with which Carl Tollefsen brought out the serene melodies of Evendensen's 'Romance' and Hobay's 'Scenes de La Czardas.'"

The Brainerd Musical club is endeavoring to present in their winter concerts the very best of programs for Brainerd, and urge the cooperation of the Brainerd ladies. Those in charge report they have received splendid cooperation from all the neighboring villages and desire a similar response from the local ladies.

Tomorrow's program the first of the club's new season is as follows:

FIRST BAPTISTS IN NEW CHURCH HOME

To Enjoy for Some Weeks Hospitality of First Congregational Church

SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS

Next Sunday Morning Worship to be Period for Both Congregations

During the next few weeks, while waiting for the completion of their building, the members and friends of the First Baptist church will enjoy the kind hospitality of the First Congregational church in the use of the Congregational church building for their services.

The Sunday morning service at 10:45 o'clock, will be a period of worship with both congregations joining. Following this service the First Baptist church school will meet, which is a change for this organization from 9:45 a. m. to the noon hour.

Then at 7 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. will meet and at 7:45 the First Baptist church evening service will be conducted, with Mr. Valiant preaching Sunday evening on the subject, "God's Handwriting."

The members of the First Baptist church and congregation appreciate very much the kind offer of the First Congregational church as to the use of their fine building. Both congregations are expecting in this arrangement, a season of delightful christian fellowship.

2 BANDITS ROB CLOTHING STORE AND CUSTOMERS

COMMANDER LAMBERT AND MANN STORE IN CHICAGO

STORE LOSES $500, CUSTOMERS YIELD CASH, WATCHES AND OTHER JEWELRY

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Two bandits took over the Lambert and Mann clothing store for half an hour today, waited on 22 customers and walked out with bulging pockets.

The store lost $500 and the customers yielded cash, watches and other jewelry of undetermined value.

"Good morning, what can we do for you," was the greeting of L. H. Glassner, manager, as the two men walked into the second floor establishment.

"Put 'em up and tell the clerks to lie down on the floor," one retorted. Glassner relayed the order and his eight clerks, including two girls, obeyed. They were bound with wire.

While the bandits were emptying the cash drawer, two customers entered. They, too, were tied up. A total of 22 bargain hunters appeared during the next half hour and all received the same reception.

The bandits filled their pockets with jewelry and money taken from the customers.

OLSON CHARGES 'SCANDAL FACTORY' IS VERY BUSY

DECLARES W. I. NORTON IS DIRECTING ITS ACTIVITIES

OLSON, IF ELECTED GOVERNOR, TO MAKE APPOINTMENTS ON BASIS OF ABILITY

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Charging W. I. Norton is directing activities of a "scandal factory," Floyd B. Olson, farmer-labor gubernatorial candidate, today named the Minneapolis legislator as member of the "political clique" backing Ray P. Chase, his republican opponent.

Olson said that each day during the rest of the campaign he would name one member of the intimate political ring, which, he charges, is back of Chase.

His statement was issued in answer to a challenge from Chase who demanded that Olson become more definite in his accusations regarding a republican machine.

"If elected governor," Olson said, "I shall make appointments on the basis of ability and experience. My republican opponent will be forced to make appointments at the dictates of this political clique, more of whose members will be disclosed to the public as the campaign proceeds."

Hennepin county republicans today were charged with the responsibility of the success or defeat of the party's candidates in the election.

Fred A. Dickey, Hennepin county republican chairman, issued a statement in which he said that neither Chase nor Senator Thomas D. Schall could be elected without a substantial majority in Minneapolis.

Coincidental with Dickey's statement, headquarters for Einar Hoidal, democratic senatorial candidate, announced that he would spend the last week before election in the Twin Cities.

He will make frequent radio addresses and number of personal appearances.

Senator Schall, plans to spend most of the next week in Minneapolis.

Hoidal today finished a brief tour of the Iron Range and was to address a meeting at Duluth tonight.

Chase spoke at Farmington today and continued to assail Olson for making state appointments an issue in the campaign.

"He talks about 'lame duck' appointments to state offices and the appointment of 'machine politicians,'" Chase said. "This is nonsense. It is merely putting up a straw man to shoot at."

Mirror Superstition

It is within the experience of almost every one to encounter bad luck within seven years, whether or not one breaks a mirror, spills salt or walks under a ladder. Such beliefs are pure superstition. Brand's Observations on Popular Antiquities says about the matter: "Mirrors were used by magicians in their diabolical experiments, and in ancient times was practiced a kind of divination by the looking-glass; whence, it should seem, has been derived the present popular notion, according to which the breaking of a looking-glass is accounted a most unlucky accident, being ominous of the loss of his best friend by the person to whom it belongs. Grose gives it as betokening death in the family circle, commonly of the master."

Gold Bowls for Nomads

Golden bowls four centuries old, believed to have been made in India, have been brought by a strange tribe of gypsies to the ancient camping grounds along the river Alt, in Russia.

COSTES, BELLONTE WELCOMED HOME

CROWD LARGER THAN THE ONE THAT GREETED COLONEL LINDBERGH

Paris, Oct. 25.—(AP)—France's trans-Atlantic fliers, Dieudonne Costes and Maurice Bellonte, were welcomed home today by a crowd larger but less enthusiastic than the multitude which greeted Col. Charles A. Lindbergh upon his arrival here from New York.

An elaborate civic welcome was prepared for the first Frenchmen to fly to New York. The arrival of the Question Mark fliers at LeBourget was the signal for a great ovation. The plane arrived suddenly over the field, breaking away from a bank of dark storm clouds just as a burst of sunshine flooded the big field.

The plane circled three times and made a perfect landing to end the fight from Le Havre, where the fliers landed from the S. S. France yesterday. The fliers were dragged from the plane by cheering friends and carried away on the shoulders of the crowd. There was a renewed burst of cheering when Bellonte greeted his wife.

The crowd stood bare headed in a rain squall while the French and United States national anthems were played.

Famous Santa Fe Trail Linked With Coronado

It was in 1541 that Coronado followed the future line of the Santa Fe trail, probably as far as the site of Wichita, and that date, though the suggestion as to earlier years fails to response, deserves some sort of commemoration. The Santa Fe trail or portions of it, must have known the sweep of more than one ancient migration before Coronado's day—perhaps descending from the North, perhaps coming up out of the crowded old civilizations of the South—but its known history began with Coronado.

And what a history it was through more than 300 years! It was the first of the great beaten tracks which joined the American East and West. It never approached in populosity those later northern routes that went from the Mississippi to Oregon and California, nor was its traffic notable for the riches carried. But where the other trails went into an almost virgin territory, the Santa Fe trail linked two opposing civilizations.

West and south along its course, following the pioneers, the traders and the buffalo hunters, went that tide from the Middle West which battled and finally supplanted and transplanted traditions and life of far-off Spain. —Boston Herald.

Conventional Idea of Lightning Found Wrong

At a meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science in 1856 the Scottish engineer, James Nasmyth, son of a landscape painter, stated that "in no instance among the many thunderstorms whose progress he had most attentively watched had he ever observed such forms of lightning as that usually represented in works of art; in all such the artists invariably adopt a conventional form, namely, that of a zigzag combination of straight lines."

Nasmyth believed the error of the artists originated in the form given to the thunderbolt in the hand of Zeus as sculptured by the ancient Greeks.

Some decades after these remarks were uttered the photography of lightning began to be common, and the photographs all showed that he was right in believing that lightning is never truly zigzag. Its path generally includes many sinuous curves, and it often branches, but a sharp angle is very rarely seen in a photograph, and it is then doubtless an effect of perspective.—Charles F. Talman in "What the Weather."

2 BANDITS ROB CLOTHING STORE AND CUSTOMERS

COMMANDEER LAMBERT AND MANN STORE IN CHICAGO

STORE LOSES $500, CUSTOMERS YIELD CASH, WATCHES AND OTHER JEWELRY

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(U.P.)—Two bandits took over the Lambert and Mann clothing store for half an hour today, waited on 22 customers and walked out with bulging pockets. The store lost $500 and the customers yielded cash, watches and other jewelry of undetermined value. "Good morning, what can we do for you," was the greeting of L. H. Glassner, manager, as the two men walked into the second floor establishment. "Put 'em up and tell the clerks to lie down on the floor," one retorted. Glassner relayed the order and his eight clerks, including two girls, obeyed. They were bound with wire. While the bandits were emptying the cash drawer, two customers entered. They, too, were tied up. A total of 22 bargain hunters appeared during the next half hour and all received the same reception. The bandits filled their pockets with jewelry and money taken from the customers.

"JUDY" By Winifred Van Duzer

PEGGY ARCHER would have preferred her daughter, Judith, to be a little more carefree and frivolous, instead of a purposeful and sensible young woman. There was, however, a lighter side to Judith's nature—one that loved life and romance. Could her mother have seen her capering through dance steps in the seclusion of her classroom, she would have held a different opinion of her daughter. But the responsibility of supporting her mother by teaching school, following her father's death, causes Judy to curb pleasure. She dislikes men. An old friend, Captain Charley Marceau, persuades her to book passage for her mother and herself for a cruise on his ship, Mohawk. She meets Kit Camp, the ship's wireless operator. On board, Judy, realizing she is unattractive wearing tortoise shell spectacles, despite her trim outfit, is lonely. Her mother had already made the acquaintance of an elderly gentleman. Judy is disappointed when Kit Camp passes without noticing her.

CHAPTER VI. PEGGY introduced Mr. Tennant. He regarded her with twinkling blue eyes and a smile which lifted his stubbly clipped white moustache above a good-natured mouth.

"Your sister? Ah—your daughter? Bless us—ah, bless us!" Judy did not mind. She had heard it before, people asking if she was Peggy's little sister. They usually said afterward, "But you were a child when you married, Mrs. Archer?" And what they meant was "How could such a pretty little thing have such a great, plain daughter?" And in the backs of their minds was the thought, "An imposition."

But Judy did not mind. Peggy loved it so—never suspected that there had been a time when it hurt just a bit. Peggy had to do without so many warnings, graceful things. And Judy, as she constantly assured herself, had no vanity.

She sat beside Peggy and Mr. Tennant got up sprucely, folded the robe across her knees, turned it under her feet, looked sidewise at Peggy all the while. He was being nice to her for her mother's approval. But this was well enough. Only if he thought he'd make Peggy act silly—forget all of Judy's warnings about middle-aged marriages well, he'd see!

"Guess who's aboard, lamb," Peggy chattered. "Betsy Rowe! Fancy that girl turning up here!" "Likely to be anywhere, Betsy is," Judy snapped.

Peggy began to talk very fast, making Mr. Tennant laugh at Betsy Rowe. "Most amusing. First girl in Lyall to go without stockings. And Lyall is conservative—needlework clubs—ladies' aids—that sort of thing. You can imagine."

They laughed together and Judy squirmed. It was just like Peggy to belittle her own sex while she contrived a subtle flattery for male vanity. Women ought to hang together—show men their place soon enough if women were loyal to other women as men were to men.

"I'm going in," she burst out and jumped up so abruptly that the robe slid to the deck. But this brought Mr. Tennant to his feet, smiling at her as he folded the robe. She thanked him furiously and strode ahead of Peggy who murmured and held out her hand. Mr. Tennant would be their pinky-gray shadow after this.

Peggy's cheeks were rose carnations and her eyes corn-flowers as she glanced about the cabin on a deck, smiling with delight. A large room with twin beds and a really imposing dresser and windows—not portholes but real windows—looking out over the sunbeaked and commanding a view both starboard and port.

"Gorgeous, Judy. Haven't tried to thank you, lamb." Tears in the very blue, very young eyes and spent all her life on the lower East Side. And an elderly pair from London who appeared surprised at everything. A whoop went up from the next table. "Hey, Ju! Hey, hey! Judy Archer!" Everybody grinned when Judy gave Betsy Rowe the most dignified nod she could manage.

"Past the twelve-mile limit—you can tell by Betsy's giggle," said Peggy with a small giggle of her own. "Betsy has one of those 'backless' dresses and two new beaus. She's pretty, though. So alive." "Of all things," Judy said. "Hush, lamb." Peggy devoted herself to the London couple and Judy dreamed again.

Now she was clinging to the edge of a table which leaned over almost endwise. One who kept tossing light hair from his eyes, thing clearly she could hear the hiss—three long ones—three short ones again. "SOS, SOS." The spark died. He raised his head, smiling at her with green eyes. . . . She let go this dream with a little shiver. Dreams! Plenty of those all her life. The unknown had looked like many a one before. Sometimes like many made into one. The Prince of Wales, Jack Gilbert, Colonel Lindbergh. Now he was different.

"Must be the sea air," she told herself. And ordered ice cream when she wanted coffee. Betsy Rowe hailed her on the way out. "We're having a party, Ju. C'mon and come. Show yourself a good time for a change." "Sorry, Betsy. Can't stay awake."

Betsy shrieked and introduced everybody with a wave of her arm. "Meet a lot of good scouts, Ju. And she's regular folks if she does wear cheaters. Well, save tomorrow night. And don't do half that I'd do!" Their laughter followed Judy, as she followed Peggy to the music room. But she was not angry. For the first time she wondered about Betsy Rowe—felt a shade of envy. Pleasant to let yourself go like Betsy did, forget that some day you meant to be a college professor and that you must live up to it.

Later the thought that she could slip into such a state of mind frightened her and she hurried up to a deck and crept into bed. The bed was like a cradle, gently rocked by waves; with a strange new sense of happiness Judy fell asleep. She awakened early, lay with her eyes closed, wondering what had happened. Memory came slowly—the ship, the sea. The feeling of sparkles running through her veins. She dashed to the window, looked out upon a wavering stretch of silver beneath an upturned turquoise bowl. No land anywhere—only a grayish shadow—a thin, gray line far away which would be the horizon. It was a perfect curve; she never before had guessed that the horizon was a circle—not just a straight line—and the knowledge filled her with excitement. Never had she dressed so swiftly; never before had she caught up her hair without bothering to smooth it. She snatched Peggy's orange scarf, tied it loosely over her head. To Be Continued Monday.
